OLD COURT CHAPEL

Old Court Chapel of Ease is a beautifully preserved 17th century listed building. The church nestles quietly within the estate providing an intimate space for holding religious ceremonies.

As part of the Diocese of Down and Dromore the chapel is privately owned which allows for any mainstream religions to exchange their vows here, making it an all inclusive wedding venue option.

CIVIL CEREMONY

Old Court offers a beautifully unique setting for civil ceremonies overlooking Strangford Lough.

Exchange vows beneath the trees with the water as your backdrop, or beneath the stretch tent beside the main barn.

Surrounded by gardens and historic estate grounds, celebrations flow seamlessly into drinks, dining and dancing.

GARDEN DRINKS RECEPTION

After your ceremony, the day unfolds into the gardens overlooking the lough. Guests gather with drinks in hand, music carries through the grounds, and the atmosphere shifts from ceremony to celebration.

THE COW BARN & THE YURT

The yurt-inspired banqueting hall was designed and handcrafted by the owner, creating a truly distinctive and original setting.

Filled with natural light and featuring a high vaulted ceiling, the space comfortably seats up to 120 guests.

Beyond the main hall, the restored stables and cow barn provide relaxed spaces for guests to gather throughout the evening.

Adjacent to the barn, an outdoor patio with a stretch tent offers a sheltered space for guests to unwind – the perfect place to step outside, catch up with friends, or take a break from the dancefloor.
